The American Studies Program is pleased to announce its scholarship program for international study. All AMS Majors and Minors are welcome to apply. Awards from $500–$1000 are available to be used in conjunction with a UC Davis Education Abroad Center program that begins between June 2013 and October 2014 (this includes Summer Abroad, Quarter Abroad, and Education Abroad Programs). Award winners will be announced in April 2014, and the funds will be made available once the student has enrolled in a study-abroad program (typical use of the award includes air travel, or program fees). Winners will be judged on the basis of their responses to the prompt below.

All applications must be emailed to Naomi Ambriz at nambriz@ucdavis.edu by Monday, March 4, 2014 at 5pm.

Statement of Purpose

Write a one-page essay in which you answer the following question: How will participating in the EAC program you have selected contribute to your academic and professional goals? (Note: You can consider such items as the educational opportunity provided by the program, the relationship to your academic preparation). Please submit a sample budget and/or a couple of sentences for how the funds will be used.

Award Winners will be asked to present at a lunch event about your experiences and its connection to your study upon your return and to write a brief paragraph about how the funds helped you achieve your goals for the AMS website.
